ABSTRACT

The Sacramento State College Library presents this annotated bibliography in an effort to help students and faculty make more effective use of existing resource materials. The document lists 1,000 items published between 1843 and 1969. Citations are grouped under the following categories: (1) Education, (2) Health and Psychology, (3) Historical Background, (4) Literature and Fine Arts, (5) Social Life and Problems, and (6) Chicano Periodicals. Included in the document is a guide to further information on locating literature on Mexican Americans, along with a subject index. (EJ)

INTRODUCTION

Early in 1969, the Sacramento State College Library began publication of a series of bibliographies designed to aid our patrons to make more effective use of existing resource materials. The first publication in the series was entitled; Chicano Bibliography: Selected Materials on Americans of Mexican Descent. That list contained some 300 items. The present revised edition contains 1,000 items, reflecting the efforts of the Library staff to acquire relevant materials in a specialized area of considerable interest to many in higher education today. This revised list does not represent all of the Library's resources in this area, but only a survey as of Spring, 1969.

Mrs. Linda Schramko, formerly Assistant Education and Psychology Reference Librarian, was responsible for the revised edition. The staff regrets very much that the relocation of her husband's work forced her resignation from the staff shortly after completing this bibliography.

At the present time, three additional bibliographies in the new series have been issued and others are in preparation. Students, faculty and staff members may obtain copies at the Library's Information Desk or in the several reference departments. Comments and suggestions from users are always welcome.

Gordon P. Martin
College Librarian

FOREWORD

This bibliography has been produced as a service to the students and faculty at Sacramento State College. It brings together in one list a selection of the materials available in the Library that deal with the American of Mexican descent. By no means does this list contain the entire Library holdings on the subject--it simply reflects something of the scope of the collection as of the Spring of 1969. The Library has acquired much more material since this list was compiled. The Guide to Further Information at the end of the bibliography indicates some of the sources available for finding further materials concerning the Mexican-American.

The present bibliography is a revised and expanded version of an earlier bibliography produced by librarians John Liberty, Pearl Spayde, and myself. While the first list showed primarily books, the revision also includes periodical articles, master's theses, doctoral dissertations, and microfiche in the Educational Resources Information Center collection. This list contains not only entries concerned directly with the Mexican-American, but also entries that have an indirect bearing or that provide some pertinent background information.

The list is arranged by broad subject categories, with a more detailed subject index at the end. Call numbers are indicated in the margin to the left of the entry; in the case of periodicals, the reference room in which they are located is shown. The acronym, ERIC, denotes the Educational Resources Information Center files; this collection is housed in the Education-Psychology Reference Room. Some items are available in more than one place in the library; such entries have a note giving the second location.

Particular thanks go to the students who compiled the initial entries for this work: Anita Aguirre, Laura Llano, Elizabeth Medina, Kay Coleman, and Ablasha Hunji, all of whom showed great personal interest in the project, and without whose services this bibliography would not now exist. Cherie Finch was the patient typist, who also--fortunately--knew a thing or two about bibliographic form. Sharron Godbois prepared the production stencil. Thanks, too, to all other student assistants who were pressed into service at various times. And, of course, the moral support of library colleagues has been much appreciated.

Linda F. Schramko

GUIDE TO FURTHER INFORMATION

The basic source for book-type materials available in the Library is the card catalogue, which lists books concerned with the Mexican-American under several subject headings, depending on the geographical area involved; i.e., MEXICANS IN THE U. S., MEXICANS IN CALIFORNIA, MEXICANS IN TEXAS. Books which do not deal specifically with the Mexican-American, yet which may treat topics of vital importance to him, are listed under a variety of subjects: DISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT, DISCRIMINATION IN HOUSING, CHILDREN OF MIGRANT LABORERS--EDUCATION, SOCIALLY HANDICAPPED CHILDREN--EDUCATION, are but a sample of the possible categories which might be consulted.

Articles in periodicals may be found by consulting the many indexes available; a few of these are listed below, with their locations indicated in the margin to the left.

Social Science,
Humanities,
Science
Reference

READERS' GUIDE TO PERIODICAL LITERATURE indexes articles published in the major popular United States periodicals under the terms MEXICAN AMERICANS and MEXICAN AMERICAN STUDENTS IN THE UNITED STATES. Related items may be found under subject headings likely to be of concern to the Mexican-American; examples would be such subjects as SPANISH SPEAKING STUDENTS, BOYCOTTS, and MIGRANT LABOR.

Social Science,
Humanities
Reference

SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES INDEX covers the more scholarly journals, but uses substantially the same headings as Readers' Guide.

Social Science
Reference

PUBLIC AFFAIRS INFORMATION SERVICE BULLETIN indexes a wide variety of materials, including books, pamphlets, magazines, newspapers, and reports of public agencies published in English throughout the world. The primary subject to consult is MEXICAN AMERICANS, but, as in other indexes, the user may find related materials under other subject headings.

Humanities
Reference

MUSIC INDEX. Because of the fact that there is so little in the literature on specifically Mexican-American music, this index is useful primarily for background information on the music of Mexico.

Humanities
Reference

ART INDEX, like Music Index, is of interest for the articles it includes on the arts of Mexico.

Humanities
Reference

GUIDE TO THE PERFORMING ARTS covers material on the Mexican theater, music, ballet, and opera.

Humanities
Reference

INDEX TO LATIN AMERICAN PERIODICAL LITERATURE covers periodicals published in Latin America or elsewhere in the world that concern Latin America. It uses the term MEXICANS IN THE U. S.

Science
Reference

INDEX MEDICUS is an index to medical journals. It does not list articles under the names of ethnic groups, but under subjects associated with them; for example, the terms SOCIAL WELFARE and TRANSIENTS AND MIGRANTS may include some articles on health problems and programs.

Science
Reference

HOSPITAL LITERATURE INDEX includes articles on the health problems of migratory workers under the heading TRANSIENT CARE.

Science
Reference

NURSING LITERATURE INDEX also covers the health of migratory workers under the term MIGRANT PROBLEMS, and the care of deprived children under CHILD WELFARE.

Education
Reference

EDUCATION INDEX uses the subject heading MEXICAN AMERICANS; some additional terms which might be consulted are: CHILDREN OF MIGRANT LABORERS, CULTURALLY DEPRIVED, BILINGUALISM, and SPANISH SPEAKING STUDENTS.

Education
Reference

PSYCHOLOGICAL ABSTRACTS locates articles on the Mexican-American under the terms MINORITY GROUP and ETHNOLOGY.

Education
Reference

RESEARCH IN EDUCATION indexes some periodicals, but is primarily an index to the microfiche collection of research reports gathered by the Educational Resources Information Center. Most of the terms used in the previously mentioned indexes are also used in Research in Education.
